PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Archangels would like to thank the Warhorse team for their unwavering support during this difficult period.

~Final Farewell to Our Fallen Warrior~

Second Lieutenant Emily Jazmin Tatum Perez, 23, was born in Germany. She attended the United States Military Academy at West Point and graduated with a degree in Sociology. Second Lieutenant Perez received her commission on 28 May 2005 as a Medical Service Corps officer. She attended the AMEDD Officer Basic Course at Fort Sam Houston, Texas and upon completion reported to the 204th Support Battalion on 11 October 2005 where she assumed responsibility as Charlie Company's Treatment Platoon Leader.

Second Lieutenant Perez was a remarkable officer with tremendous potential. She could always be counted on to bring a smile to your face. She accepted every challenge placed before her and she led her Soldiers on the battlefield, ensuring their personal safety. She was respected by all in the Rough Rider Battalion. Second Lieutenant Emily Perez made the ultimate sacrifice for her country on 12 September 2006, while leading a convoy from Duke to Kalsu. Second Lieutenant Perez will be in our hearts and minds forever for her leadership, friendship and dedicated service to the Rough Riders and the United States Army.

She is survived by her father, her mother, and her brother. Second Lieutenant Perez's awards include the Purple Heart, Bronze Star Medal, Army Commendation Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon, the Overseas Service Ribbon, and the Combat Action Badge.
